

RICH COAL TRACT PAYS LOW TAXES

State Revenue Agent Mays Digs Up Remarkable Tax Condition In Nearby County

Eleven thousand acres of coal land in one of the nearby mountain counties worth easily $1,000,000, it is said, have been taxed at a valuation of $10,000 or the past several years.

State Revenue Agent for the State W. O. Mays, has just returned to his home in this city from a visit to the county indicated, where he spent several days "digging out" the facts about what appears to be a flagrant violation of the assessment and taxation laws of the state. Anyway, Mr. Mays is going to test out the matter through the courts. He is now planning to institute suit for back tax collections, for several years back, as allowed by the statutes.

Mr. Mays has reliable information that the coal company owning this big tract of land, has priced it recently for sale at a cool million dollars. Anyway the entire 11,000 acres are said to be entirely underlaid with a fine quality of coal, and Mr. Mays thinks that an assessment of only $10,000 on the property is a joke pure and simple.

CHARRED LITTLE BODIES FOUND IN EMBERS

The bodies of the two little Hume children who lost their lives when the home of their father, Dave Hume, burned to the ground on the farm of County Attorney O. P. Jackson, late Thursday, were discovered in the debris and embers of the burned home about noon Friday. The bones and what was left of the little bodies, charred and burned almost to a crisp, were tenderly placed in caskets and taken to their old home near Kirksville for interment. Mr. and Mrs. Hume have the sympathy of all in their loss and bereavement. The two little boys were all they had in their little family.

Just how the fire started will never be known. It is thought that perhaps the little fellows in their play either poked the fire out of the stove or else knocked it over in some way. Mr. Jackson says that the mother had been told several times that it was very dangerous for her to leave the children alone at home with a fire.

SAMUEL PARKS INHERITS MONEY

A man named Samuel Parks, who is supposed to have come to the south from Frazeyburg, O., in 1915, has inherited some money according to a letter that Postmaster R. C. Stockton has received from the cashier of the Peoples Bank of that city this week. An effort is being made to locate him. Here's what the bank cashier writes the postmaster here about the missing Parks:

November 17, 1920
Postmaster, Richmond, Ky.,
Dear Sir:—About 1915 Samuel Parks, a timber man, left here for the south. He was about 5 feet and 9 inches tall, 55 years old, weight 240 pounds, dark complexioned, mustache, no teeth, baldheaded. Would appreciate it if you could give me any information as to his whereabouts, as he has inherited some property here. Please hand this to your newspaper if you do not know of him.

Yours truly

WIN WITH ABERDEEN ANGUS IN THE SOUTH

The Lancaster Record tells of honors that the Bradshaw Bros. of that county, Aberdeen-Angus cattle breeders, have been winning at the southern shows, as follows:

Bradshaw Brothers are just from a tour of the southern fairs where they exhibited their splendid herd of Aberdeen-Angus cattle, capturing many prizes of which they are naturally very proud, since they went up against opposition from practically every herd throughout the country.

They exhibited their cattle at the Southeastern Fair Association at Atlanta, first, from there they went to the Southern Fair Association at Albany, Ga., thence to the Georgia State Fair at Macon, taking first champion bull, first on aged cow and first on bull calf, the latter being undefeated during the year. This calf was sold and has been delivered to Mr. W. L. Neale, of Boyle county, the price paid being $2,000.

The winnings of this herd at five shows which they were shown resulted in 29 first prizes, 13 seconds, 18 champions and grand champions; 11 thirds and 4 fourth prizes. This is a record we dare say has not been equaled in the state of Kentucky.

The best fatted steer which won second at the Kentucky State Fair, won first at Atlanta, both championship and grand champion in the Angus class. He was butchered in Atlanta and won first on carcass test as senior yearling; also champion and grand-champion in the carcass test, netting 64.7 per cent, and was sold on foot for 20 1-2 cents a pound. This yearling weighed 1300 pounds and brought $270, having previously won over $300 in prizes.

Their aged cow defeated two cows in Atlanta that were bought just for this show at $6,000. This was a fine victory and Messrs. Bradshaw are now priming this cow for the International Show at Chicago next year.

THREE BANKS ROBBED IN KENTUCKY TOWNS

First National At Harrodsburg Blown Open and $1,000 and Safety Boxes Are Taken

(By Associated Press)
Harrodsburg, Ky., Nov. 20.—Robbers early today pried open a rear window and entered the First National Bank, blew the door from the vault, opened a small steel safe and escaped with $1,000 in silver. They also carried away a number of safety deposit boxes, the contents of which will not be known until they are checked up.

Louis Gabhart and Kyle Watkins, sleeping over the bank, hearing the noise below, shot from the window at one man who appeared to be standing guard. He returned their fire and with the rest of the band fled. Apparently, they had an automobile nearby, although the machine was not in view.

The number of participants in the robbery are not known but there were believed to be three or four. Poses are searching the country today.

All securities, however, had been placed in a large safe which was not opened, and the robbers secured nothing.

At Allenville, Todd county, the same method was employed to enter the Bank of Allenville Tuesday night. Robbers looted 21 safety deposit boxes and got away with $20,000 in securities, about $300 of which is negotiable, $2,000 in postage and war savings stamps was taken from the postmaster's box.

BIG SHIPMENT OF TURKEYS BY RENAKER

The Renaker Poultry Company of this city shipped Thursday two carloads of dressed turkeys to the eastern markets, that contained over 40,000 pounds. These turkeys were purchased from Madison farmers and cost about $15,000. The shipment consisted of about 4,000 hens, which, if placed in a single file, would make a string of turkeys over two miles in length. These fowls were shipped by freight to Cincinnati where they were put in with other cars making up a solid trainload of nothing but dressed turkeys en route to New York and Boston for the Thanksgiving market. time to the East. LOVING CUP GIVEN TO COL. CRECELIOUS

As a testimonial to their appreciation of what Col. S. F. Crecelious has done for the city of Richmond in watching its interests during the construction of the new paved streets, the members of the Street Committee of the City Council, and the executive committee of the Citizens' Committee, presented him with a handsome silver loving cup Friday evening. The presentation was made at a delightful dinner given by Mayor L. P. Evans in honor of Col. Crecelious. The presentation speech was made by Judge J. J. Greenleaf, who acted as special legal adviser to the city during the street paving work. Col. Crecelious was astonished to say the least, when the beautiful cup was brought in, and showed the deep feeling that he felt at such a manifestation of appreciation on the part of the men who have been so closely associated with him. The cup was handsomely engraved with words of appreciation for his splendid work for the city and taxpayers.

The menu served was verily a feast fit for the gods, oysters, fat turkey, cranberries, salads, ice cream, cakes and a host of other good things that the Daily Register representative who had the good fortune to be present, can not recall, though he did ample justice to each and all of them. It was a beautiful and happy affair in every way and the attractive home of Mayor and Mrs. Evans made a fitting setting for it every way. The guests besides Col. Crecelious were Messrs. J. I. Greenleaf, R. E. Turley, T. K. Hamilton, C. B. Terrill, William O'Neil, J. H. Dean and S. M. Saufley.

Surviving her are the following children, who were all at her bedside when the end came: Mesdames Malcomb Edwards, of Cincinnati; Wm. CHURCH ATTACKS ON OPERA SINGER

Chicago, Nov. 20.—Backed up by a testimonial signed by all the stars of the Chicago Opera Company, Georges Baklanoff, Russian baritone, declared today he would sing in Tosca tomorrow despite a written protest made by Dr. Herbert L. Willett, president of the Chicago Church Federation.

Dr. Willett sent a letter to the opera directors demanding that Baklanoff be barred because of his relations with Mlle. Elvira Amazar, a Russian singer, who caused his arrest last winter on Mann act charges. Baklanoff was held for a time at Ellis Island on arrival in this country a week ago and was ordered deported, but later paroled.

"The ability of a singer is paramount," Baklanoff declared after reading Dr. Willett's letter, which characterized him as "notoriously immoral." Continuing the singer said:

"I am no minister or priest. Very few artists make any pretensions of being particularly moral. Anyhow, very few such people go to the grand opera, so if they object to me the opera company will lose nothing."

Samuel Insull, president of the Commonwealth Edison Company, and one of the directors of the opera company, said:

"The right of the public to appraise moral values in the personality of an artist is a question I would not care to discuss. This is a matter for the grand opera people themselves to decide."

TEACHERS GET MONEY

Through the kindness of Cashier R. M. Rowland, of the Southern National Bank, County Supt. B. F. Edwards was enabled to have the checks for the October salaries of the county teachers ready for them Saturday. Owing to the fact that the interest rate on state warrants is only 5 per cent, it is not possible to get the county's warrants to October salaries cashed as soon as it became due. Mr. Rowland took the matter up with a Louisville bank and secured the $6,125 that the warrant called for and made the teachers happy.

GOV. MORROW URGES ALL GIVE THANKS

Gov. Edwin P. Morrow has issued the usual Thanksgiving proclamation in which he urges prayerful observance of the day. The proclamation in part is as follows:

"Our Father in Heaven during the past year has blessed us, his children, with peace within our borders, a bountiful yield from the soil of Mother Earth, the preservation of our liberties, regulated by law, and the maintenance of our free public institutions. From our forefathers, through all the drifted years of our national history, we have at this season set apart a time of thanksgiving and prayer, known as 'Thanksgiving Day,' which comes at the end of the harvest home.

"The fruitage of spring and summer has been gathered to assure us against the wants and rigors of winter.

"'Thanksgiving Day'—hallowed by the memory of our Pilgrim Fathers, sanctified by years of observation, touching every heart with the tender memories of home and childhood and the recollections of the loved and lost—is the day the wanderer returns home; when family ties, long broken, are reunited; when hungry arms are filled with loved ones."

HOGS PAY BIG MONEY

Mr. Pete King, of Hawk Point, Mo., made a lot of money out of his hogs. He says: "I feed them Dr. LeGear's Hog Prescription. It has wonderful results in putting gains on them with less feed. They were on heavy feed for only a month; averaged a gain of 21-2 pounds daily, and were only 7 months, 10 days old when sold."

Mr. Wing profited by the advice of Dr. LeGear, Graduate Veterinarian an Expert Poultry Breeder of 28 years' standing.

Dr. LeGear's Hog Prescription will put weight on your hogs also, because it expels worms, purifies the blood and conditions them so that they gain flesh on less feed.

It makes no difference what ailment is prevalent among your stock or poultry, it is money in your pocket to get the proper Dr. LeGear Remedy from your dealer on a satisfaction or money back offer.
